VOCATIONS

Jesus was led by the Holy Spirit into the desert for forty days of prayer and fasting. Are you open to being led by the Holy Spirit into the life-commitment God has prepared for you? If God is calling you to serve him as a priest, brother or sister or permanent deacon, call Fr. Michael King, Director of Vocations and Priestly Formation, Diocese of Hamilton at 905 528-7988 or email mking@hamiltondiocese.com www.hamiltonvocations.com.

“I am sorry, I am only human”. Perhaps you have said this, or thought this. From roots in dualism (that the flesh is bad, and only the spirit is good), often we may have the image that our humanity is a chain that holds us down, something to apologize for, or be embarrassed about. Yet, Jesus was God-made-man. He embraced our humanity. He chose to be one like us. He raised our humanity by taking on flesh and bones and being born of a woman in time and space. We are subject to temptation and sin, so our humanity continues to be ‘redeemed’ (personally) in that sense. But, the battle has been won through the suffering, death and resurrection of Jesus. We need to be conscious of how we see ourselves and our human condition, or human nature. We are redeemed in Christ and our humanity is the vehicle or instrument (not the ‘shell’) that God has given us to live, and be and do, and to work for the resurrection of society.

CANADIAN CATHOLIC ORGANIZATION FOR DEVELOPMENT AND PEACE

Defending the rights of poor communities fractured by forced evictions in Nigeria

In Nigeria, forced evictions are carried out violently, without consulting those concerned, as well as without warning, compensation, or providing alternative housing.

Thanks to your support, the Social and Economic Rights Action Centre, a Development and Peace partner, can train community leaders who then work with some of the most marginalized communities so they can engage in effective dialogue with the government. This year, we invite you to join Development and Peace’s monthly giving program Share Year-Round. You can register online at devp.org/shareyearround.

Our Share Lent Collection will be taken up on Sunday, March 18, 2018.
