Vocations

Peter, James and John had a mountaintop experience with Jesus by witnessing His transfiguration. We too can have a mountaintop experience when we open our minds and hearts to following God's Will for our life. If God is calling you to serve Him as a priest, contact Fr. Michael King, Vocation Director, Diocese of Hamilton at 905-528-7988 email vocations@hamiltondiocese.com

Laudato Si – On The Care For Our Common Home

An Encyclical published by His Holiness Pope Francis in 2015
SECOND SUNDAY OF LENT
“Lord, it is good for us to be here,”

Have you ever had a feeling that you were where you were meant to be, doing exactly what you were meant to be doing? If so, think of how this made you feel. Perhaps you felt at peace, or perhaps a sense of confidence. I think St. Peter may have felt the same way that you did when he spoke the words, “Lord, it is good for us to be here,” as he witnessed the Transfiguration all those years ago. Today the first 2 readings reveal that God calls each of us in a unique way, and so we all have the potential to have these moments. God guides us towards them by blessing each of us with a unique set of talents, relationships and opportunities. All too often we meet obstacles on the road to fulfilling God's plan for us. Climate change and the over-extraction of resources could leave you homeless or in such a state of poverty that the best you can do each day is to simply survive, never mind developing to your full spiritual and social potential. Norms and laws disfavour people based on gender, religion and culture, which could hold you back from contributing your talents to your community.

On this International Women's Day March 8th, we celebrate the incredible women all over the world who have answered God's call to bring about his Kingdom here on Earth, often bravely overcoming obstacles of discrimination to do so. Today, we celebrate Yesica Patiachi Tayori who is a community Indigenous leader of the Harakbut people in Peru. She is leading her people's effort to protect themselves and the Peruvian Amazon rainforest where they live. Women lead some of Amazon's largest and most innovative businesses and have a positive impact on their products and services. Amazon seeks diverse perspectives and encourages their communities to embrace that we are all human, all different, and all equal.

She was invited to the Synod of Bishops for the Amazon Synod in Rome in October, 2019. Let's ensure that everyone has a chance to answer God's call to ensure that the voices of the poor are heard. On this International Women's Day, let us be especially mindful that women must have equal opportunities as men to use their unique gifts to build the Kingdom of God. Let us all take a moment this weekend to thank the women you know for their important contributions to our communities.
